

Sean Zweifel

Contractor with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives

Located at Richmond Police Department

Education

Virginia Commonwealth University

2013-2018

Bachelor of Science in forensic science with a minor in chemistry

Learned of forensic physical, chemical, biological examinations of evidence, proper handling of evidence, compiling of information based off of forensic examinations.

Benedictine College Preparatory

2009-2013

Junior Reserve Officer Training Course (JROTC)

Obtained the rank of Rifle Team Captain

Oversaw a team of students in the safe handling of firearms and marksmanship.

Work-Current

Eagle Harbor, LLC

Crime Gun Intelligence Coordinator I

January 2019-present

Duties include proper handling of evidence, examination of cartridge casings, evidence packaging, conducting firearm traces, maintaining proper documentation of past cases worked. Processed between 4500 and 5000 cases into National Integrated Ballistics Information Network (NIBIN). Assisted with NIBIN shoot trailer in the process of test firing evidence guns. Maintained the safe storage and handling of live ammunition for test firing purposes. Received training for courtroom testimony provided by the ATF.

Belmont Pizzeria

December 2014-January 2019

Served as a sales representative in a fast paced pizza environment, maintained sanitary work environment, took orders from customers, handled cash and credit transactions and made pizzas.

Food Lion

February 2012-December 2014

Cashier

Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives

May 14th 2018-August 1st 2018

Intern

Gained experience in the federal side of law enforcement through handling sensitive case files, observing training routines, attending court hearings, and gaining working knowledge of the NIBIN database.

Awards

Eagle Scout

November, 2011

Built backdrops for elementary school's theater program